

Environmental Considerations

Last Updated Saturday, 01 December 2007

-

Completely battery powered. Drive train and cutter bars all electronically driven and electronically controlled.

-

No dirty environmental emissions. Very light maintenance requirements.

-

Extremely quiet.

-

Uses only 25 cents of electricity to cut one acre compared to 4-6 litres of gas with a conventional gas tractor.